For example if a Pedophilia Victim, a Torture Victim or a would find out who did that all to him they would maybe call him a Terrorist for getting access to his computers, and would find the pedophilia content. If the Victim would Victim that was Subject to illegal Human Experiments look at the same Folder on his Computer, the Acces: Based Ennumeration algorithm would hide this images Windows Network. If you would implement that on want to keep the victim silent. So they would upload the would help to hide the illegal human experiments my particular case i guess there is a malware, that is they would need some sort of Matrice Operations (Jacobi Matrices?) to calculate the Body Movement. In activated when they use m99 to target me. They seem to change the sign of one axis or making me steering me into singularities after about 15 minutes after i started to do body care to make me hurt "myself". So maybe it's just one of those additional Networks that is 99.9% of the time silent, that overpowers the signal i should receive with a value Spinalis implant (Spinal Cord implant) would exist If something like Medulla Oblangata or Medulla has an additional minus sign for that specifi
